

Na'ahog Justine, Cameroon

Madame Na'ahog Daouda Justine is the cashier at Ngaoubela Protestant Hospital. In that role she facilitates medical prescriptions and the distribution of drugs as well as the collection of patient care costs. She has served at Ngaoubela since 2015. At the end of 2022 Na'ahog Justine received a "Prix d'excellence" award from OSEELC, the Lutheran healthcare system in Cameroon, recommended by Ngaoubela's leadership. Her nomination noted her "remarkable efforts in quality of care and respect for medical ethics."

All of GHM's partners rely on staff like Na'ahog Justine. She is committed to the mission of Ngaoubela Hospital and the mission of OSEELC, and approaches her job with integrity. We are grateful for her service at Ngaoubela - we salute her!
